主题演讲

◆ Kenneth Allen, VP of Seagate Technology.

Much of the information you care most about in your life is written to and read from hard disc drives by magnetic recording heads. These incredible devices are designed and developed using multiple engineering disciplines. In this presentation, we'll discuss the fascinating technology behind this large and growing business.

◆ Paul Citron, Member of National Academy of Engineering, Medtronic Inc.

"Medical Devices: Is the Past Prolog to the Future?" focuses enormously positive impact medical devices have had on improving health as well as the strong headwinds the industry now faces. These forces threaten the industry's vitality and most distressingly, the well-being of seriously ill patients.

◆ Margaret Carlson, former CEO of University of Minnesota Alumni Association

"Being an Ambassador and advocate for Tsinghua University" will focus on how alumni and friends can stand up hand speak up for this esteemed institution hosting and mentoring Chinese students studying in Minnesota.

➤ 清华人，清华事，清华情” 清华生活回忆

60s届, 70s届, 80s届, 90s届, 00s届校友在清华时的趣闻趣事。你最怀念清华的什么？
